

Fieldbrook Saddlery Freshman's Series

To be run in conjunction with the Metro freshman's days.

Starting as of March 14th 2010 Metro Show Jumping Club will be conducting a series based on the Club's Freshman's Days. Only riders who attend Metro Freshman's day can take part in the series and riders wishing to take part in this series must record the names of their horses and themselves when attending Metro Freshman's days. The series is independent of Freshman's, and riders are NOT obligated to participate. There is NO EXTRA CHARGE to participate in the series, with the exception of the final, as listed below.

The series will be run at Freshman's, with a final competition held at the Club's December Freshman's.

The series will be conducted in two divisions

Group "A"

- For horses that jump in freshman's days in rounds from 30cm and up to 70cm

Group "B"

- For horses that jump in Freshman's days in rounds from 75cm and up to 100cm

Riders can enter one or more horses in either groups but can not enter a horse in both groups nor change from one group to the other. At the end of the ninth round the Club will invite the leading point's winners of each group to compete in a championship competitions to be held at the December show.

Points to be allotted to horses for

- 1 point for attending each freshman's day during the series
- 2 points for a clear round in each height of the nominated group
- 1 point for attempting the next round above the nominated group.

Leading points scorers in each group at the end of the series will receive a Trophy
